receiving the catcher's signal. Spruell was also instrumental in nipping a Chester rally in the fifth when he caught a runner napping at third. Eggerter's return to form in the 6th, when he made a beautiful stop down third base line and doubling at the plate in the same inning after he had been unable to get hold of one in three previous trips to the plate. Koster's one handed catch of a line drive deep in left field. Rimmer's surprise when he was called out on a high one. Hynes' run producing single in the sixth in his only trip to the plate.

These are but a few of the outstanding incidents of a thrilling win. Each and every man played hard, fighting all the way. Coming from behind three times speaks more than words.

We haven't forgot the Chester has won over the San Francisco, (the team which eliminated the Houston in Long Beach) the strong Chicago nine and several other cruiser teams. Score: Houston—8, Chester—7.

The Houston's popular Navigator and Athletic Officer, Lt. Comdr. Inglis acted as arbiter for the entire game. His quick and to the point decisions reminded one of the big league umpires. No doubt, Mr. Inglis knows the national pastime from "A to Z".

NAVY MOTHERS' CLUB

AGAIN ENTERTAINS

Wednesday evening the Navy Mothers' Club will again be hostesses at an informal dance for enlisted men at the Edward B. Rhodes Post Legion Hall, 409 South G Street.

STREET PARADE BY

ARMY AND NAVY

Thursday morning the Army and Navy will have a street parade. For this parade the Navy will furnish two Battalions of four rifle companies each and the Marine Corps will make up one battalion of four rifle companies. All the bandsmen present will be massed in two bands. Landing force "B" will be the uniform with Equipment "A".

WHALE BOAT RACES

Thursday afternoon all cruisers equipped with pulling whale boats will take part in a race which is scheduled to start at 1715. Due to the fact that the Houston is not equipped with a regulation whaleboat and it is impracticable to borrow one, we will not have an entry in this race. The winning crew will be presented with the Chamber of Commerce Trophy, individual men of the winning crew will receive appropriate medals.

BASEBALL

During the week an elimination series of ball games will be held between ships. The Tacoma Chamber of Commerce Perpetual Challenge Cup will be awarded to the winner. Individuals of the first two teams (15 each) will receive medals. This is something for team to shoot at.
