

NEWS OF FORMER SHIPMATES

Sarge Price, SC2c, is coming along fine in the Mare Island hospital. Sarge, as the old timers will remember, was one of the HOUSTONS famous troupe of Asiatic cooks.

Popeye Nutson, Cox, famous for his unbelievable stories "he swore that they were all true" is still in the Alaskan survey, or what is left of it and says he is getting along fine with his new rate.

Joe Silva, CGM, now out on twenty, is in and around Boston and is doing well on the old outside.

Franke Remus, Cox, former HOUSTON MAA and holder of the All-Chana Middle weight and Light heavy weight belts is now on the TENNESSEE; but says he wishes he were back with his old shipmates.

Well, it's true that the poor will always be with us, but our complaint is that too many of them are relatives of our wife.

Smoking is hard on the eyes a week before payday. You nearly go blind looking for a butt.

THE END.
